UNOPPOSED MOTION TO APPOINT COURT ADMINISTRATOR FOR JEFFERSON COUNTY FAMILY COURT

Comes now the Defendant Jefferson County in the above styled cause, and pursuant to the Court's First and Second Temporary Orders [Docs. 1780 and 1802], requests the Court's permission to fill the position of Family Court Administrator. Said position was not contemplated prior to the Court's First or Second Temporary Order and is now vacant. Pursuant to paragraph 9 of the Court's Temporary Orders, the Defendant would request permission to fill the non-merit system position of Family Court Administrator.

The County, and in particular Judge Raymond Chambliss, the presiding judge of the Jefferson County Family Court, requests to fill the vacancy with Mr. Ronald Truss, who has worked for nearly thirty (30) years with the City of Birmingham in various court-related and administrative positions. Counsel for the County has consulted with opposing counsel, and neither the Martin-Bryant Parties nor the United States opposes this appointment.

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, the Defendant would request the Court to grant its motion to appoint Mr. Ronald Truss to the position of Family Court Administrator.
